

WORK ON $600,000 PLANT TO START SOON

West Coast Road Brings Industry To Port Renfrew

Big Shingle Mill Planned as Result of Highway Project; Vancouver Interests to Make Operations Tributary to Victoria; Expect Renfrew to Become Thriving Port

First business results of the West Coast Road project, which the Government is pushing ahead now, were announced today, when large Vancouver interests asked the Government to sell them a plant and equipment at Port Renfrew to be used to manufacture shingles on a large scale.

The Kennedy Timber Company, representing these interests, has placed a definite bid for the Port Renfrew plant before the Department of Industries, which holds it now. This bid will be considered by the Government immediately.

ROAD RESPONSIBLE
Decision of the interests represented by the Kennedy Timber Company to commence the manufacture of shingles on the West Coast is the direct result of the Government's plan to link Port Renfrew and the rich district around it with Victoria. Assured of communication by road with the city, these interests are confident Port Renfrew will form an ideal location for a shingle mill. Their purchasing, of course, will come direct to Victoria over the new highway.

SHOWS HIGHWAYS' VALUE
Announcement of these plans was regarded as a striking indication of the value that the road will be to Victoria and surrounding districts. The country which it will tap is so rich in timber that lumbering industries will spring up there as soon as road communication is available, and all this business will be tributary to Victoria. In announcing their clients' plans, the Kennedy Company said it regarded Port Renfrew as a prospective port of great importance. It expects a thriving community to develop there as soon as road connection with Victoria is established.

GORDON HEAD VOTERS HEAR N. WHITTAKER

George S. Pearson, Nanaimo Liberal, and Mark Graham Also Speak

A review of progress in British Columbia under the Liberal administration, with particular stress upon social legislation, financial policies and general development brought sincere applause from an audience in St. Aidan's Hall, Bay Road, last night, listening to speakers in support of Norman H. W. Whittaker, Liberal candidate in Saanich.

Mark Graham, Liberal candidate in Victoria, and George S. Pearson, Nanaimo riding candidate, were the speakers in addition to Mr. Whittaker. Alan Harper presided.

Mr. Graham, the first speaker, spoke of Mr. Whittaker as a man of sterling qualities, "in whom you can place the utmost confidence." The voters would not go wrong in casting their ballot for him.

Mr. Graham mentioned some of his own activities in Victoria, referring to his connection with the Kiwanis Club, of which he was a charter member and first president. He had also acted as a director of the Chamber of Commerce for the last seven years, and in addition had served on the board of directors of the Jubilee Hospital and on the house committee of that board.

ROBBED JEWELER OFFERS REWARD

Joseph Rose Will Pay $500 For Return of Property

A reward of $500 has been offered by Joseph Rose for the arrest and conviction of thieves who looted his Government Street jewelry store during the holiday season.

Announcement of the reward has been posted with all the police departments of the continent. Mr. Rose this morning informed The Times that the reward is contingent upon return of the goods stolen, and a partial recovery would earn a proportionate reward. "I am particularly interested in obtaining possession of my property. I presume that result would normally only follow arrests, but the reward would be paid at once if the goods were discovered and returned," Mr. Rose explained.

GANDHI GROUP FIGHTS NEW TAX

Nationalists in Bombay Presidency of India Are Reported Defying Government

London, July 5.—A dispatch to The London Daily Mail from Bombay says the famous Nationalist agitator, Mohandas K. Gandhi, is trying to establish a revolutionary regime in the Gujarat agricultural region in the northern part of the Bombay Presidency.

His organization is stated to be defying the Government and terrorizing 80,000 villagers in the Bardoli district. Seventy-nine of the eighty-eight village headmen resigned at the dictation of Gandhi and his associate, Vallabhbhai Patel, whose brother is a member of the Indian Legislative Assembly.

The campaign ostensibly is in resistance to payment of the recently imposed land tax. The peasants are being urged to collect the crops on lands which the Government declared forfeited in default of payments. A monster demonstration of sympathizers with the revolt was held yesterday in Bombay, which is excited.

Ocean Air Travelers Expected to Make Landing at Pernambuco Field

Pernambuco, Brazil, July 5.—The Italian transatlantic plane, the Savoia 61, was sighted over Port Natal at 4:05 o'clock this afternoon, and it was expected a landing would be made here about 5 o'clock.

Natal is 150 miles north of here. The flight was started from Italy. REPORT BY RADIO

Buenos Ayres, July 5.—A dispatch to La Nación to-day from Pernambuco said radio signals from the Italian transatlantic fliers, Captain A. Ferrarin and Major C. del Prete, had been received at Natal, Brazil. The plane was believed to be close to that port, which is about 150 miles north of Pernambuco.

INDEPENDENT'S GAINS ALARM TOLMIE GROUP

Leader's Public Unity Appeal Follows Growth in Matheson's Strength

The split among Victoria Conservatives opened wide on the surface today following the Conservative Association's public appeal yesterday for closed ranks at the election of July 18. This appeal, supported by a telegram from Hon. S. F. Tolmie, Conservative Party Leader, was aimed chiefly at the candidature of Capt. R. P. Matheson, Independent Conservative, who is running as a protest against methods used to nominate the regular Conservative ticket, J. J. Beatty, Regina.

Twice that the Independent Conservative nominee is cutting seriously into the Conservative vote was indicated by the grave view which the Conservative Association took of the situation, and its action in getting Dr. Tolmie to repudiate Capt. Matheson as well as Mrs. James McGregor, the other Independent Conservative in the field.

GETS WIDE SUPPORT
Capt. Matheson, who has a distinguished military record, both in the South African War and the Great War, is making a strong bid to stand the regular candidates in their stead in the poll. He will receive virtually the entire vote of the party, which has been at war with the party machine here for the last two years. They are rallying around him as representative of the party.

KINSMEN ARE VISITORS IN B.C.

Clubs Holding National Convention in Vancouver; Given Welcome

Vancouver, July 5.—Kinsmen in national convention in Vancouver, who already number nearly 100, began their three-day programme of business this morning by the appointment of committees and the presentation of credentials and prepared for a moonlight pleasure cruise to Indian River to-night.

A warm welcome was given to the club delegates on behalf of the city by Alderman John Bennett at their first luncheon to-day. Guests of the club were the presidents of the Rotary, Kiwanis and Gyo Clubs, and T. S. Nixon, president of the Vancouver Board of Trade. Alexander McFarlane, past district governor of Rotary, was the speaker.

This afternoon the convention will consider the reports of several committees and will nominate the officers of the National Association of Kinsmen's Clubs, who will be elected on Saturday.

There are twenty-four Kinsmen's Clubs throughout Canada. The B.C. Kinsmen are in a dilapidated condition, midway between Long Point and Blaine, Sablon, on the shore of Quebec on the Strait of Belle Isle, near the Quebec-Labrador boundary. According to dispatches from Port-au-Prince, the natives have left little of value on the plane.

Object of Plane Search In Far North Region

Latest word from the Spitzbergen Archipelago is that all efforts by plane and ship to find trace of Capt. Roald Amundsen, pictured above, and the five men who disappeared with him in their seaplane June 18, have so far failed. The area of search by the aircraft is being widened.

Liberal B.C. Government Leads Whole Dominion In Labor Legislation

Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, Victoria Liberal Candidate, Reviews Laws Enacted for Working Man in Radio Talk

"Anyone who has made but a casual study of the history of the Labor Movement will admit that Liberalism has been responsible for an overwhelming proportion of the legislation which has been enacted for the protection of the workers and the betterment of labor conditions generally," said Alderman R. A. C. Dewar, Victoria Liberal candidate, in a radio talk last night.

"Such legislation favorable to labor has been introduced by Conservative governments has been either purely in the nature of concession or has been enacted under tremendous pressure or through fear."

"It may safely be asserted that no labor legislation has ever been passed by a Conservative Government willingly."

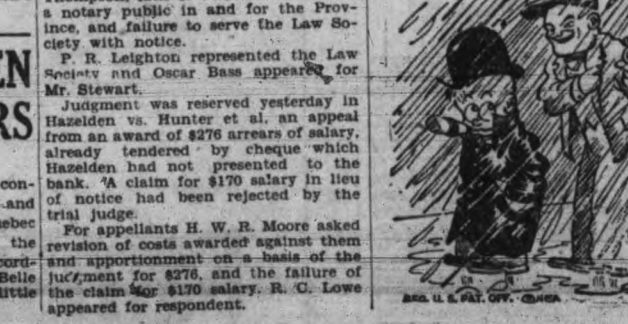

"Since it came into office in 1916, the Liberal Government has enacted more labor legislation than any other Canadian province, and infinitely more than any previous government in British Columbia."

Man Was Knocked Down By Lightning

Vancouver, July 5.—Knocked flat by a lightning bolt at 3:30 p.m. yesterday as he was repairing a fence at the Caroline Court Apartments, Nelson Street, Vancouver, F. L. Crowder, janitor, escaped serious injury and was little the worse for the experience.

The bolt struck with a terrific crash, which threw people in the neighborhood into a momentary panic and put electric services out of commission for ten minutes.

SEARCH IS MADE FOR BODY OF AIR TRAVELER

No Trace of Remains of A. Loewenstein, Lost in English Channel

Dunkirk, France, July 5.—Coastguards and lighthouse keepers along the coast between Fort Mordyck and the Bray Dunes have been ordered to search for the body of Captain Alfred Loewenstein, lost from an aeroplane while crossing the English Channel last night. Fishing boats to-day dragged the Channel with nets, but without results.

Brussels, July 5.—The newspaper L'Independence Belge says that Captain Alfred Loewenstein, who lost his life last night in a fall from his private aeroplane into the English Channel, had important liabilities in Brussels and had tried unsuccessfully to obtain a £1,000,000 loan in London.

INVESTIGATION MADE
Boulogne-sur-Mer, France, July 5.—The mystery whether Captain Alfred Loewenstein, noted financier, jumped or fell by accident from his private aeroplane while over the English Channel last night had not been definitely cleared by a preliminary police investigation to-day.

Aviation experts here are inclined to regard as improbable the theory of accident—that he opened the wrong door of the plane when going to the washroom.

TWO MEN TO BE SENTENCED

Vancouver Magistrate to Make Ruling on Safety Box Bond Theft

Vancouver, July 5.—James McLeod, Grosart, to-day was found guilty in police court here by Magistrate H. C. Shaw of participating in the theft of $20,000 in bonds from the safety deposit box of John McNeely in Vancouver. He was remanded until Saturday for sentence.

Grosart, in his defence, swore he was not aware the bonds had been stolen and that, in turning the case over to him, McNeely used a "dummy," who posed as Mr. McNeely. McNeely, on the other hand, told the court Grosart had assisted him to remove the bonds from the box in the vault, where McNeely was custodian. The magistrate refused to believe Grosart's story.

The convicted men are well known.

GRAHAM, STRAITH, DEWAR TO SPEAK AT SOUTH PARK

PROMISE OF GREAT CROP RETURNS ON THE PRAIRIES

Winnipeg, July 5.—The farmers of the prairies are riding on a wave of optimism as crop conditions continue to be the most favorable in many years. Since early Spring the weather has proved ideal through the successive periods of ploughing, seeding and growth. Abundant moisture has been reported from every important grain growing area and cool temperatures have offset the danger of pests.

With the exception of a few isolated sections, the growth has been unusually rapid, with roots sturdy and the stand fairly even. The seasonal menace of

WRIGHT WINS AT HENLEY

Canadian Sculler Defeats David Collett in First Heat of Diamond Sculls

Henley, Eng., July 5.—Both Joe Wright and Jack Guest, Toronto scullers, won their first heats in the historic Diamond Sculls at the Henley Royal Regatta to-day. One of them will be eliminated to-morrow, for Wright and Guest meet in the semi-final.

The final will be rowed on Saturday. This afternoon Wright, defeated David Collett of the Leander club, one of Britain's greatest scullers, by two and one-half lengths in ten minutes six seconds. Last year Wright defeated Collett in the preliminaries only after Collett collapsed near the finish line.

In the final, the Canadian struck a boom near the finish and lost to R. T. Lee of Oxford. Lee won his heat yesterday and it is possible he again will face Wright in the final.

Jack Guest defeated T. Saunders of Eton Vikings. Guest won easily by five lengths. Guest's time was 9:58, creditable in view of the strong wind which swept across the course.

D. Guye, London, defeated H. Dekok, South African sculler. Guye won by a length in the very slow time of ten minutes and twenty-seven seconds.

The London Rowing Club defeated the Borken Union Boat Club by half a length in the last round for the Grand Challenge Cup.

The time was seven minutes thirty-two seconds.

R. T. Lee of Oxford, who defeated Joe Wright of Toronto, in the final of the Diamond Sculls last year, won his heat in the same to-day defeating H. Edwards, Old Westminster, by 2½ lengths in 9 minutes, 28 seconds.

Premier Asks Province To Vote For Profitable Sale of P.G.E. Railway

Clearings Gain At Rate of Nearly $250,000 a Day

Victoria bank clearings during the last week show a gain over the volume of the corresponding week last year of nearly $250,000 a day for every business day of the week.

The Victoria Clearing House figures issued at noon to-day show that clearings here for the week ending to-day amounted to $3,669,944.

For the corresponding week of last year the amount was $2,269,381.

Princeton, B.C. July 5.—Sale of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway to the Canadian National Railway if his Government should be returned to power on July 18, was definitely pledged by Premier J. D. Maclean, before a large audience in the Orange Hall here last night.

Through the co-operation of Hon. Dr. J. H. King, a lease of the necessary site at Ogden Point for the erection of a $600,000 cold storage plant, was ratified by Federal Order-in-Council yesterday, Mayor J. C. Pendray is notified in a wire from the Minister to-day.

WITHOUT DELAY

In his wire Dr. King gives an assurance that the execution of the lease will be carried out without delay, on terms arranged by the Federal authorities, the Canadian National Railway and the Municipal Debenture Corporation, which is financing the project. Mayor Pendray acted for the city, which is guaranteeing a seven per cent return on the investment for the first ten years.

Dr. King will be thanked by the city for his co-operation in securing a lease of a suitable site for the creation of terminal warehouse facilities here. All financial arrangements for the venture have been completed, it is understood, and an early start will be made at the site.

WILL COST $600,000

The ground sought by the city for the location of the plant fronts on the water between the two piers at Ogden Point, just to the south and east of the Panama Pacific grain elevator. The plant will cost in excess of $600,000, it is stated, and will contain the latest equipment in cold storage machinery to handle fish and produce for distribution to a distance.

Ratification of the by-law, which was passed by the city last year, was completed recently by the City Council, in a measure which provides for the guaranteeing of the venture to the extent of interest payments only for ten years. Under this plan the city could be called on to pay $35,000 a year to the operators of the plant, but from this sum would be deducted any profits made in the period.

An early announcement is expected as to active plans for a start at the site.

Charge Follows Vancouver Death

Vancouver, B.C., July 5.—George H. Gavin of Burnaby died in a hospital here this morning from injuries sustained last night when he was struck by a street car at the corner of Lillooet and Hastings Streets.

Motorman G. D. Spencer of the car was charged with manslaughter after he was liberated on $5,000 bail. This forenoon his case was remanded for one week in the police court.

Charge Follows Vancouver Death

There is no other problem of such great importance to the people of British Columbia," said the Premier. "More than $50,000,000 of the people's money is invested in that road and the luxury of owning it is costing them another $3,000,000 every year in interest charges and operating losses."

"When the Liberal Government came into power in 1916 there were 147 miles of it constructed. We spent $13,000,000 on it and it is not finished yet. Somebody has got to spend more money on that road to complete it from Vancouver to Prince George and on into the Peace River Valley. I am convinced the Canadian National Railway is in a better position to do that than the Province of British Columbia because the construction of the road must go hand in hand with a land settlement policy and the National Railway will have the whole immigration machinery of the Dominion at their service in that regard."

PART OF C.N.E. SYSTEM

"I am telling you that if my Government is returned to power I can sell that road to the Canadian National Railway," continued the Premier with emphasis.

PROTEST OF FINE IS MEANINGLESS

Appeal Court Rejects Technical Argument of Crown

The Court of Appeal yesterday afternoon refused the appeal of the Crown in Rex vs. Sutherland, Chief Justice A. Macdonald holding the appeal should succeed. The appeal was brought by the Crown from a decision by Acting Judge J. R. Brown of the West Kootenay Court, upholding the validity of the notice of appeal given by Alice Sutherland after conviction by the Roseland police court.

The evidence showed that a police court fine of $20 had been paid under protest, together with $50 as security for appeal costs. The fine had been paid by the magistrate into the coffers of the city of Roseland instead of being transmitted, with the deposit for appeal costs, to the County Court registry.

For Sutherland H. R. Bray pointed out that as fines cannot be paid under protest the money paid into court must have been for the purpose of deposit.

Remark that the practice of paying fines under protest should be sharply discouraged, as fines are paid or not paid, Mr. Justice Martin believed that substantial and liberal compliance with the statutory requirements for appeal to the County Court had been made by Sutherland, and the appeal of the Crown should fail.

Mr. Justice Gailther pointed out that the Crown objection was of very technical character which, if maintained, would put an innocent party to loss. He supported the view of Mr. Justice Martin, remarking that where evidence was so undecided he inclined to favor the accused.

Turning to election questions, he declared there were certain questions which each voter should ask himself before casting his ballot. The business man, the laboring man, the father and the mother could each review the Liberal record with satisfaction to their own interests and from Dr. MacLean's platform could judge for themselves that conditions would be even better in the future, he declared.

Steady reductions in taxation during the last five years were put forth by Mr. Graham as examples of good management by the Liberal Government.

From The Financial Post he quoted figures showing the per capita purchasing power of the people in British Columbia was higher than any other province in the Dominion—and this was reliable information, he pointed out.

Graham also quoted to show a condition of prosperity in the Province.

FINE COMMENDATION
"Coming as it does from this paper, this statement is one of the finest commendations British Columbia could have," he declared. "When the progress under the present directorate has been such, why is a change needed?"

"And in Dr. MacLean you have a man who can handle the natural resources of the Province and the whole of British Columbia better than any other individual," he concluded.

Having watched closely the progress of British Columbia during the last five years, he declared, he concluded the present Liberal administration was the best the country had ever had, said Mr. Pearson, opening his remarks.

A GOOD GOVERNMENT
"It is a good government, and because it is a good government it has come safely through the hardships it has done," he said.

Mr. Pearson outlined criticisms of party politics by adherents of the business administration policy. There were few real basic differences in the party policies, he said, and Dr. Toimie seemed only too ready to imitate the Liberal platform.

"The people who want a business administration controlling provincial affairs can hardly now demand a Conservative Government," declared Mr. Pearson. "If there is one thing we have had during the last two years, it is a business administration."

POPULAR ATTACK
The Conservatives had taken the popular form of attack against the Liberals—that of debt and taxation. Liberals were misrepresenting the financial condition of the country. But the MacLean budget presented this Spring was a refutation to these statements and was as clear-cut and comprehensive a statement as could be wanted.

Premier MacLean admits the debt has increased, said Mr. Pearson. But this had been done for reasons over which the Liberals had no control and for the purposes of development. The responsibility for the F.G.E. Railway was undoubtedly on the people of the Province, who clamored for it, and "I am sure they are no more confident in Dr. Toimie's ability to handle it than that of Premier MacLean."

ROADS NEEDED
"And who will question the need for roads in the Province for which a large part of the debt was incurred. By building these out of current revenue, taxes would have been increased enormously and many of us would not have lived to have the benefit of the fine highways which resulted."

This debt is not so frightful, Mr. Pearson added. The Conservatives in their stories do not tell us that there is a large sinking fund ready to handle them when they come due, that the per capita wealth of the Province is higher than any other province, that the per capita purchasing power is greater and that more settlers are coming in steadily to help in bearing the burden.

SERVICES TO PUBLIC
Mr. Pearson outlined the services which the Government provides for the people in return for the money collected, mentioning old age pensions, mothers' pensions, workmen's compensation and other social legislation enacted by the Liberals.

"We cannot have these privileges without paying for them—and the best of it is—we are able to pay."

Despite the fact that the Province was practically bankrupt when the Liberal Party came into power, it was now in a wonderful state of prosperity, asserted Mr. Pearson.

SHOULD WE CHANGE?
"Can we in the face of this dilemma the Government merely because we have a change of government, should we change just to please any party—to take away the administration when business is running smoothly?"

"There were really only two issues in the election, said Mr. Pearson—the election—the record of the Liberal administration as compared to the Conservative regime preceding and the comparison of the two candidates."

"Maybe Mr. Whittaker is better able to present your views than a man who is politically ambitious," he said.

Mr. Whittaker opened his address with an expression of appreciation for the other two candidates who had aided him at the meeting.

If elected, said Mr. Whittaker, he realized his duty as a member of the Legislature demanded attention to provincial matters as a whole and then to those of his constituency regardless of party.

"I will do my best to adhere strictly to this principle, if I head the poll," he declared.

Mr. Whittaker described Dr. MacLean as a man of the people, who had risen from school teacher to be Premier through hard work, unremitting attention to business and sound judgment. The death of the late John Oliver had undoubtedly been a great loss to the Province, but the people were singularly fortunate in having Premier MacLean as a successor.

CONSERVATIVE COMPLIMENT
Imitation was said to be the sincerest form of flattery. If this were true the Conservative Party in its manifesto was paying the Liberal group a great compliment. Except for a few generalities which meant nothing, the basic platforms were the same.

The Conservatives were like the colored gentleman who was entering the army, but balked at the cavalry, because when he retreated he "didn't want no horse in his way." The Conservatives did not wish any election horse to hinder them after the election, declared the candidate.

GENERALITIES
Mr. Whittaker analyzed Dr. Toimie's manifesto. "The Conservative leader promises an increase in population; is not population steadily increasing? What is this vigorous land policy he talks about? There is nothing promised there. He mentions amendments to labor legislation, which may be considered advisable. What amendments? What does he promise you? Nothing definite."

Abolishment of succession duties and reductions in the income tax were intimated by the Conservative leader. Mr. Whittaker continued. But succession duties were only paid on estates above $20,000, and one had to be making a fair income before paying income tax. Where was the benefit to the poor man in these promises?

WHAT NEW TAX
Besides what new tax, what new form of revenue will they devise to take the place of these taxes to maintain the revenue? It is the Liberal principle to impose taxes on those who are able to pay. The poor person cannot find comfort in the promise of reductions along these lines."

The taxes in British Columbia had been reduced a total of $3,000,000 in the last five years and in Dr. MacLean's manifesto further cuts were promised through the return of railway lands to the Province and the sale of the F.G.E., both of which would be of substantial benefit to the provincial treasury.

Conservative speakers had gradually worked the provincial debt up to about $125,000,000 in their election speeches. Mr. Whittaker said, dealing with the subject of debt. The gross debt of the Province was $80,000,000 in round figures. From this was to be deducted $17,000,000 in productive debt, the greater part of which would eventually be returned to the Province and a sinking fund of over $18,000,000 provided to cover it, leaving a net debt of $46,000,000. In this was included $21,000,000 in F.G.E. bonds, necessitated through the action of the previous government.

POWER OF MONEY
Another thing you must take into careful consideration when considering finances, said Mr. Whittaker, is that the purchasing power of $1 is only half what it was in 1916. The Liberals must pay twice as much as the Conservatives did for similar work.

"But it would be foolish for the Liberal Party to take upon itself all the credit for the prosperity in the Province. Nevertheless, the Government is blamed when times are bad, and when the country is progressing, at least some of the credit should go to the administration."

Per capita taxation in British Columbia, as compared with other provinces, showed that the Conservatives was only a matter of different conditions, the speaker continued. Municipal taxation was not so great in British Columbia as in these other provinces and in the cities were more even than the figures seemed. There were also the matters of old age pensions and mothers' pensions which had to be covered, different from many of the other provinces.

ALWAYS SO
In this connection, Mr. Whittaker referred to an editorial in The Vancouver Daily Province, which showed that since 1894 no government had succeeded in getting the per capita tax in British Columbia down to the general average of the Dominion. Physical conditions in the Province was the chief reason of this.

Mr. Whittaker outlined some of the social legislation enacted by the Liberal Party, mentioning the equal guardianship of infants act, the widows' family maintenance act, the minimum wage act, the eight-hour day law, mothers' pensions and old age pensions.

Mr. Whittaker put himself on record as heartily in favor of maternity benefits and state health insurance, which he would support, he said, when they were brought up.

ECZEMA BROKE OUT IN PIMPLES

Had to Keep Hands Out of Water. Cuticura Heals.

"Eczema started with an irritation and soreness between my fingers. Later it broke out in small pimples which were red and full of water. I had to keep my hands out of water, and could not do my regular work. The itching and burning certainly kept me awake at night. A neighbor recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a free sample. After using it I discovered the trouble was disappearing so I purchased more, and my hands were perfect after using one cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment." FISHING
1916 14,500,000
1926-7 27,400,000
Production increase 1916-1926
+ 12,828,589 or 88.95%

FROM the cold, deep waters of the seven thousand miles of British Columbia's Pacific Coast, comes a harvest of fish that the palate of all mankind enjoys! For over twenty years our Province has been a leading factor in Canada's fishing industry. Progress continues unabated...the markets to the ends of the earth demanding ever increasing quantities.

The past ten years have seen this industry grow from 14 million to 27 million dollars...an increase of 89%. Our annual catch totals nearly half the entire Canadian production, and "King Salmon," our marine silver mine accounts for at least 15 million dollars a year.

The distribution from our Provincial hatcheries of millions of salmon eggs to renew the harvest that goes into the nets; the Treaty between Canada and the United States for the protection of the Pacific Halibut (March, 1923) providing a close season from November 16th to February 15th; modernized canneries, 83 in number, and sane Federal Fishing Laws, carefully administered, are the foundation of an industry that will continue to grow.

The fame of British Columbia's Whaling Fisheries is of long standing, and has materially increased the value of the products from this industry. The yearly catch, now about 400, is taken between one station on Vancouver Island and two stations on the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Much as has been done to develop and conserve our fishing industry, there still remains a great deal to be accomplished. The vastness of our waters and the extent and ruggedness of our coast make organized protection and administration extremely costly.

But the safeguarding of our fisheries is a matter which now commands the earnest attention of our government, who realize the importance of conserving this basic industry.

As the oldest industry of our Dominion, fishing has been one of the largest revenue producers, and it is significant that Canada's youngest Province, in less than twenty years, should secure a leading position in the world market. This aggressive search for foreign business has been an asset which undoubtedly has created one of the most amazing records of our basic industries. Well may we be proud of our Fisheries!

Simcoe, Ont.—"For several years I have had a run-down feeling, caused from overwork. One day a neighbor came in. I told her all about what was wrong with me and she told me she had suffered the same as I had. She said the only medicine she tried was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and she advised it to me. I sent to the drug store and got a bottle and now I am on the fourth one. Where before I was dizzy, tired and 'all in' in every way, now I can eat and enjoy my meals, am gaining in flesh and able to do more work. AN IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT that the P.G.E. will be sold to the Canadian National Railways if the people will give him a mandate in this election to dispose of the road in this way will occasion widespread satisfaction. It indicates that the negotiations which have been proceeding at Ottawa have reached a point which permits a definite announcement by the Premier, and that there is every assurance that through the co-operation of the two governments British Columbia's most difficult problem will be solved.

Dr. MacLean points out that the sale of the P.G.E. will effect a saving to the Province of $3,000,000 a year, which will enable the Government to make important reductions in taxation. More than that, the Canadian National Railways will be in a better position to extend the road to North Vancouver and to the Peace River country and to operate it successfully than the Government. It also will be able to colonize the great Peace River block which in pursuance of negotiations between the Provincial and Federal Governments is about to be turned over to the Province. The vast wealth of this fertile area thus will become tributary to the coast, and from this condition every coastal community will benefit to an incalculable extent.

THE LAND QUESTION

IN A LETTER TO THE MORNING PAPER
 Mr. R. E. Gosnell of Ottawa, formerly of Victoria and at one time an employee in various capacities of the McBride-Bowser Government, declares that when we said that the Liberal Administration on taking office at the end of 1916 was confronted with the task of trying to collect $16,000,000 from speculators to whom hundreds of thousands of acres of land had been sold at a few dollars an acre, we stated what was "absurdly untrue."

We repeat that there was outstanding in principal and interest when the late Government went out of office in 1916 the sum of approximately $16,000,000 in respect of these deals with land speculators. Nor is this the whole story. In order to get land upon which to settle returned soldiers the new Government brought down the Soldiers' Homestead Act under which authority was taken to compel holders to return all lands that had not been paid for and on which $9,803,150.14 HAD BEEN LEVIED IN TAXES AND ONLY $2,857,360 COLLECTED. In other words, the Liberal Administration was faced also with a tax delinquency bill of something like $7,000,000 as well as the unpaid account of $16,000,000 in principal and interest. And of the tax account more than $5,000,000 had to be written off as a bad debt and the lands taken back by the Crown.

The truth of the matter is, of course, the previous Government made no real effort to collect either principal or taxes or to foster the development of the lands upon which so much money was owing. Nor should it be forgotten that a good deal of land bought at a dollar an acre by these speculators was unloaded on the public at prices ranging from twenty-five dollars to one hundred dollars an acre. No development ever was intended and none was done. The progress of the Province was retarded as a consequence of this land alienation policy.

From the legal point of view the law was then, and still is, that no more than 640 acres could be purchased by one person. But the speculators got round this; the former Government permitted the formation of large land companies and thereby immediately weakened the force of this provision, since staking by attorney was the method followed. One man did all the staking of thousands of acres and used the names of stenographers and clerks who never saw them staked. The initial fifty cents was all that was paid in most cases. It was all most of the speculators ever intended to pay. Their object was to unload during the boom.

Another point to be remembered is that in 1916 the assessment on land values was $145,000,000. In 1926 it had been reduced to $111,000,000. It thus can be said that it has taken ten years to wear down the evils of the former Government's land policy, or lack of policy. The story is illustrated by the value of agricultural production then and now. In the period 1907-1916 it was $202,581,036; in that of 1917-1926 it had grown to $592,008,299—an increase of 192.2 per cent. The reduced assessment obviously assisted the farmer. The figures we have quoted prove that.

Since 1916, of course, the present Government has insisted that no land be sold except for development purposes, for production. It has rigidly adhered to this principle. The Land Act has not been changed in any material fashion; but its administration has been on very different lines.

HARD ON MRS. HINCHLIFFE

LORD INCHCAPE HAS GIVEN $2,500,000 to the British nation as a contribution towards the national debt and as a memorial to his daughter, the late Hon. Elsie MacKay, who together with Captain Walter Hinchliffe perished in an attempt to fly across the Atlantic.

No sooner had this announcement been made than a letter appeared in The Daily Mail from the widow of Captain Hinchliffe describing her own plight and that of her children. She says she has written to Lord Inchcape four times telling him that her two children are unprotected for; he replied to the first one in a noncommittal way and the others remained unanswered.

Mrs. Hinchliffe argues that while Lord Inchcape is under no legal obligation to her, there is a moral one in view of the fact that the flight was the late Miss MacKay's own scheme, Hinchliffe having been hired as the pilot.

At this distance it would appear that if Lord Inchcape can give $2,500,000 to the nation as a memorial to his late daughter, a sum large enough to keep Mrs. Hinchliffe and her two children in decent comfort would make very little impression upon his purse. Much depends upon the manner in which he interprets a moral obligation.

GOING HIM ONE BETTER

 for Victoria are busy improving upon their leader's manifesto. According to The Colonist the "gospel of relief to the people" they preached at a meeting yesterday evening was a fifty per cent. reduction of the income tax and the total abolition of succession duties.

Evidently these gentlemen are not satisfied with Dr. Tolmie's modest announcement on this subject, which was: "High rates of succession duties and income taxes are extremely detrimental to the influx of capital for development of our great resources and discourages permanent residence in this Province, and the Conservative party pledges itself to reduce such taxes to a more equitable basis as rapidly as practicable."

It will be noted that Dr. Tolmie would only reduce those taxes as "rapidly as practicable," but his four candidates here are talking about a fifty per cent. reduction of the income tax and the total abolition of succession duties. But why should they stop at a mere fifty per cent. reduction of the income tax? Why not wipe it out altogether, and thus give effect to a real, sensational improvement of this part of their leader's policy as formally announced by him? Obviously they are not troubled by the qualms which influenced the pronouncements of Dr. Tolmie in regard to this and other planks of his platform. He, of course, realizes that if revenue from one source is diminished, it must be supplied by revenue from another or there must be a reduction in the expenditures on necessary public services. For example, we assume that road construction would be reduced to a minimum, and that in view of the evident lack of enthusiasm the Doctor and his friends are showing over the West Coast road this project would be abandoned.

This discrepancy between statements made by Dr. Tolmie and his candidates on this subject is significant of the absence of harmony which prevails in the opposition ranks generally. The leader says one thing and his candidates many other things. What other planks of Dr. Tolmie's platform are to be "improved" in this way? Finally, who is leading the opposition party anyway?

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

SHOT AT DAWN

The Manchester Guardian

During the Great War there was a particular misfortune that befell many soldiers—a misfortune grim and unforgettable even at a time when death, wounds and destruction were commonplaces of everyday existence. To be one of a firing squad detailed at dawn to shoot a fellow-soldier for "cowardice" was doubly dreadful, because the victim was a comrade and seldom, if ever, guilty in a moral sense. To be afraid is often no more than to have lost one's nerve, and to shake and go weak-kneed with fear is often as unavoidable as to be shivery and numb with cold. Brigadier-General Crozier, writing in The Sunday Express, gives a profoundly moving impression of what it means to shoot and to be shot at dawn. He himself once had to superintend the execution of a private soldier whom, with rare humanity and insight, he calls not "a coward," but "our comrade in distress." The members of the firing party were so unwarmed by their dreadful duty that some bullets flew wide, and the officer in charge had to use his revolver so as to make death sure. General Crozier suggests that a machine-gun would kill more surely and instantaneously than the rifles of a firing squad. But does he think these executions necessary at all? The Germans, cowards, and the German soldier was spared the ordeal and the memory which must still haunt the dreams of many who served in the British army. But while General Crozier refrains from urging the abolition of the death penalty, he adds his own name to that of Field Marshal Sir William Robertson, General Von Delming, and others, who make up the strongest and yet the most exalted list of generals in history—the generals who demand the abolition of war itself.

A THOUGHT

DEFENSIVE BIDS

When the no-trumper is at your right, you should not bid a suit unless right tricks can be made with your own holding and your hand is strong enough to prevent game against any trump suit. If you are in a position to bid on less than an eight-trick hand is not indulged in by strong players. A bid in this position is not a defensive bid, it is an offensive bid and should not be made unless you can bid three or four suits or a hand worth eight tricks the best strategy is to pass.

When the no-trumper is at your left, you may bid if your hand is almost as good as an original bid or a defensive bid of two for the purpose of indicating to your partner the best suit to lead. The greatest losses are incurred by a bid of two in defiance of no trump when you do not hold five probable tricks. The fourth hand should bid only when the hand contains a real lead indicator or probability of success.

This article now may be summarized as follows:
 1.—Do not make a defensive bid unless total hand contains approximately 1½ quick tricks.
 2.—If you do not hold K or Q J in five-card suit, you must hold two quick tricks in balance of hand.
 3.—As a rule, do not bid a no trump over a suit, unless hand contains two stop opponents' suit.
 4.—As a rule, do not bid a suit over a no trump when you hold an eight-trick hand.
 5.—To make less than game usually is a waste of time. On a clear score, if with your hand you are reasonably satisfied that opponents cannot make game and that to make game you will require more than normal assistance from your partner, pass.

KILLING SONG BIRDS

To the Editor:—F. H. Wilson, who lives on the B. X. Ranch near Vernon, has been feeding his young song birds. He shot the crow, and it vomited out the young bird. This was on June 22, 1928.

One of the greatest authorities on bird life in America states that magpies will pick out the eyes of the young song birds, and the magpies destroy a large percentage of game birds.

One crow destroys twenty-nine insectivorous birds a year, how many insects would the insectivorous birds kill if the crow hadn't killed them first? E. D. WATTS, Vernon, B.C., July 1, 1928.

SAANICH BUSES

To the Editor:—As a resident of Saanich I enter my protest to the mainline bus operators of Gray Line Company have been treated in regard to operating motor coaches on East Saanich Road.

In November last the company purchased rights and equipment for $26,500 after advising the Saanich Council that it was negotiating with Mr. Harrison, and asking the council if it would be accorded the same treatment that Mr. Harrison was receiving, namely, that other licensees would not be allowed to place the by-law. The company was advised that when Mr. Harrison surrendered his license and the company made application a new license would be issued to the company.

After an expenditure of such a large sum of money and the placing of additional expensive equipment, the company is only allowed by the council to operate for eight months.

The service that has been given could not be bettered any place. I understand that Mr. Matson undertook with the view to purchase the rights and equipment from all the present licensees.

Why have the reeve and council not insisted before placing the by-law before the ratepayers, that Mr. Matson's undertaking be carried out, and give every licensee just, equitable and fair treatment?

The reeve ought to explain what motives he has in not insisting that the undertaking be carried out, and why the rush in submitting such a by-law to the council.

In protest of such action by the reeve and council, the by-law should be defeated at the polls on July 14 next.

THAT PLATFORM

To the Editor:—I have read with much disgust the platform of the Hon. S. Tolmie. The document is a mere list of promises, and stamps Dr. Tolmie as a professional politician. As a Conservative, I could understand Tolmie's platform, but I cannot understand a list of promises, but for any Conservative to publish such a mess of vote-catching proposals is indeed hard to understand.

The principal planks in the worthy doctor's platform are "Decreased Taxation" and "More Social Legislation." How does he intend to provide money for mothers' pensions, etc. if he is going to reduce taxes? Judging from his attitude towards the Hon. Mr. Hinchliffe, we may, as regards social legislation, expect that if the Liberals have "whipped up with whips, the Conservatives (if they get in) will whip us with whips."

Dr. Tolmie is going to "manufacture our raw material at home." More power to him, for this is indeed a worthy ambition as is his idea of bringing capital into British Columbia, but first you must show the manufacturer a chance to make a profit. I ask the Hon. Dr. Tolmie what sane manufacturer is going to sit in a game with all the cards stacked against him? What sympathy can you expect from capital for Minimum Wage, Eight-hour Day Acts, or Oriental Exclusion? We in British Columbia are already handicapped by high railway rates for what we used to pay $1 for a few years ago (speaking of passenger and express service) now costs us $1.50, a rise of fifty per cent. The greatest loss a new settler can make is cheap express rates to his market, and yet we find a steady increase in these rates, although the war has been over for years. The cause for these higher rates is given by Mr. Beattie of the Canadian Pacific Railway and Sir H. Thornton as the higher price of labor (due to the domination of our railways by labor trusts and combines). In addition to the higher rates, our national railways had to have $39,000,000 last year to enable them to carry on. Our railway problem in Canada is our greatest question, and yet the Conservatives say "Hands off our National Railways." Perhaps Dr. Tolmie will tell us why the Liberals and Conservatives are in such perfect accord against the public in this regard? Dr. Tolmie next gets quite worked up over the horror of the public having cheap butter or berries. He is, apparently, more at home on these than on railway questions. He waxes eloquent over the loss of the berry-growers, but totally ignores the vast number (the under dogs, whom he professes to champion) to whom cheap fruit is a blessing. We have in Victoria and in the suburbs about 50,000 small berry growers. According to the theory propounded by Dr. Tolmie, eighty-five per cent of our people must pay any price for these products. What in the name of common sense is the use of reducing taxation a few cents, if you are going to tax us more on our food stuffs? There is one inevitable law in protection, and that is, the consumer always "pays the bill." There is also another feature about protection that is ignored by Dr. Tolmie. He is keen on it, but he has to have a market. Has he any assurance that if he puts a tariff wall against United States fruit, they will not retaliate by putting a tariff wall against our lumber? If we look to the Orient for a market, do you expect the Orientals to swallow "Oriental exclusion" and our lumber, at the same time?

I am sorry in my manifesto he did not see fit to go further into the question of "immigration." The doctor uses the politicians' stock phrase about "selective immigration," etc. but it is not a fact that as Quebec and the various labor unions do not want immigrants, the Conservative Party is "playing up to them." It seems strange that the British and British-born, who largely put Canada on the map in the late war, should not have received more consideration from the historical Conservative Party than they have. The British immigrant may have his faults, but he should not be discriminated against in favor of Quebec.

It seems very strange to anyone not on the inside of politics, how the professional politician ignores the big questions and harps on the little ones. Dr. Tolmie is much alive on straw-berries, but neither he nor his associates seem to be aware that our fisheries are about finished. The ever-rising price of fish, coupled with the report on the halibut fisheries, all tell the tale, and we still go on erecting fish meal factories and destroying the natural food of the game fish; and our local Conservative members have nothing to say. Living in Victoria, dependent largely on fishing and tourism, it is more than strange that these gentlemen could not get their minds off the vote-catching and social legislating long enough to put in a word to protect one of our largest local industries. It is not hard to see why the Dominion Government is willing to turn over the fisheries to the Province. They will soon be a debit, instead of an asset.

I would like to say, in conclusion, that there is nothing personal in this letter. I have never met Dr. Tolmie. My criticism is directed toward the bunk he embodies in his speeches and his platform.

Raise Prize For Golf Tournament

Edmonton, July 5.—At a meeting of the Western Canadian golf tournament committee, held here, it was unanimously decided to increase the prize money in the open competition. Originally the value of first prize in this competition was $75, with a prize to the runner-up of $35. This has now been increased to $125 and $75 respectively, with corresponding value in prize money for the other competitors finishing in the first two places.

The service that has been given could not be bettered any place. I understand that Mr. Matson undertook with the view to purchase the rights and equipment from all the present licensees.

Many Americans Here On Holiday

The heavy travel to Victoria yesterday from the United States lived up to the expectation of local steamship men and all lines operating to this city reported capacity crowds traveling all day. Canada's National holiday, Dominion Day, July 1, and the national holiday of the United States, Independence Day, July 4, coming so close together in the same week resulted in a tremendous rush for all steamers and ferry boats operating between Victoria and other parts of the island and the Canadian and United States Mainland. Several thousand holiday makers from the United States were in the city yesterday in the course of the celebration. The largest single contingent coming in at noon on the Canadian Pacific flyer, Princess Patricia, which carried a party of nearly 1,000 Seattle Elks in their annual excursion. The visitors had all afternoon in the city and left on the return trip to the Sound City at 6 o'clock.

OLYMPIC MAKES EXTRA TRIP

The Puget Sound Navigation Company's automobile ferry steamer Olympic, operating between this city and Port Angeles, made an extra trip last evening to accommodate the unusually heavy crowds traveling. The extra trip was made from Victoria at 8 o'clock and from Port Angeles at 10 o'clock. A large number of Victorians spent the

GLOBE CIRCLERS NOW IN EUROPE

Mears, Who Will Pass Through Victoria, Completes First Leg of Trip

Completing the first leg of their journey in an attempt to regain the record for the fastest passage around the world, which was taken away from them in 1926, John Henry Mears and Charles B. D. Collier arrived at Cherbourg early this morning on the White Star liner Olympic. Their plane, which also crossed the ocean strapped to the boat deck, was used for the first time in the journey to Paris and Berlin, and from there to Moscow, their fourth and last city in Europe.

From Moscow they will fly to Yokohama, where they will board the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of Russia for the journey across the Pacific to Victoria. Here again their plane will be used to take them from this city across the Continent to their home city, New York.

Plenty of rest is given, the two men, whose ambition is to circle the globe in twenty-three days, while crossing the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans. Five days were given them on the Olympic on the Atlantic and nine days will be spent on the Empress of Russia on the Pacific Ocean.

When the Empress of Russia arrives here in the early morning hours of July 21 the aeroplanes will be taken off the Russia and brought to the B.C. Airways airport on Lansdowne Road, where they will be refueled and then the two travelers will be able to take off for Seattle within an hour. When the Russia reaches Vancouver the same day Mears and his pilot will be nearly 400 miles on their way to New York.

Man to Go Over Niagara In Big Ball

Niagara Falls, July 5.—Confident he will be the third person to go over Niagara Falls and live to tell of his experience, Joe Lashier, French-Canadian resident of Springfield, Mass., was prepared today to make the hazardous voyage in a specially constructed rubber ball, which he believes will withstand the crushing waters and rocks. Because of the vigilance of officials on both sides of the Niagara River, no definite time has been set for the attempt to go over the Horseshoe Falls on the Canadian side, but it is expected Lashier will try the feat some time this afternoon.

The ball, which is six feet in diameter, has six piles of rubber over a steel frame and four piles under the steel. Its walls contain thirty-two oxygen compartments, with tubes leading into the inner chamber where Lashier will sit.

Tubes to the outside of the ball are to provide communication with rescuers after the venture.

The daring venture is to be filmed.

Young Rockefeller Takes Summer Job With World League

Geneva, July 5.—League of Nations officials today issued an appeal stating they were anxious to make the coming of John D. Rockefeller III to hold a temporary job with the League information section entirely simple and untroubled. It was hoped the press and public would do nothing to embarrass the Princeton student in the fulfillment of his duties.

The officials asked for co-operation to avoid any exaggerated or wrong impression on behalf of a "fine chap." It was added his salary would be commensurate with his work and the general League scale.

Temporary summer assistants generally receive $40 a week.

SLOOP SIR TOM KEEPS RACE CUP

Vancouver, July 5.—The Seattle sloop, Sir Tom, sailed by Ted Geary, retained possession of the Lakerwood Cup over the English Bay course this morning when she registered her third straight victory over the three Vancouver entries. The feat of the final was the race between Lady Van, skippered by Tom Ramsay, and Lady Pat, Hon. Maitland's well-known craft, the former taking second place.

Sir Tom led Lady Van over the finishing line by 244 minutes and Lady Pat by 4.04, the Riwana bringing up the rear.

Sir Tom thus won three firsts, with Lady Pat next with two seconds and a third, while Lady Van had one second and two thirds.

The Riwana was the only other boat in the race.

Cruiser Wreck At Halifax Leads To Investigation

Halifax, N.S., July 5.—The British light cruiser Despatch, flagship of the North Atlantic and West Indies Squadron of the British navy, commanded by Vice-Admiral Sir Walter Cowan, was rushing today toward Halifax Harbor where the light cruiser Dauntless, another unit of the squadron, was still hard on Tribune Ledge after entering the harbor in a wrong direction Monday afternoon during a dense fog.

The Despatch was expected to arrive at the scene of the wreck late this afternoon or in the evening.

It was thought the court-martial inquiry into the affair probably would be held here.

Another unsuccessful attempt was made today to float the Dauntless at high tide today.

New Grain Research Work Is Planned

Ottawa, July 5.—The Federal Government has decided to devote the entire amount of money resulting from the overages in Canadian terminal elevators toward research in connection with grain problems.

In making this announcement today, Hon. James Macdonald, Minister of Trade and Commerce, stated the decision had been made in view of the ever-increasing number of problems regarding the production and marketing of Canadian grains.

The expenditure of money resulting from overages will be under the direction of the National Research Council and the Order-in-Council regarding the disposal of such money along the lines has been passed.

Arctic Aviator Has Hard Fight

Moscow, July 5.—The Tass News Agency said the Russian aviator Babushkin, who had been missing for five days and was supposed to have perished on the Arctic ice, returned to the icebreaker Malguy today after a vain struggle with winds and icebergs in an attempt to locate the missing mobile party.

FIVE INJURED BY EXPLOSION

Carpenteria, Calif., July 5.—Five persons were injured, three of them seriously, here shortly before midnight when sparks from firecrackers ignited a box of dynamite caps.

Mr. Lang and his son, Marvin, eighteen, of Santa Barbara, are the most seriously injured, and little hope is held for their recovery. Lang's wife also was injured badly.

MAN FACES TRIAL

Vancouver, July 5.—William Legackie, arrested here last week by detectives at the request of Ottawa authorities in connection with the alleged theft of $27,000 from the Standard Bank of Canada in that city, will start on his eastward journey to-night to face trial. Detective Downey of the Ottawa detective force arrived in Vancouver this morning and Legackie will be handed over to him to escort to Ottawa.

FARMER DRIVES POLICE AWAY

Man Near Toledo, Washington, Fires at Deputy Sheriffs and Delays Arrest

Chehalis, Wash., July 5.—Unsuccessful in their attempt to arrest Jim Turner, 35-year-old farmer, a posse of deputies under Sheriff Degler of Lewis County returned here today to await developments. Turner met them with a volley of rifle shots when they approached his farmhouse three and a half miles south of Toledo. He barricaded himself in the rear of his dwelling and fired four shots when the officers came to arrest him. After waiting under cover some time, the deputies decided to try to arrest Turner some other time.

C. W. McLEAN WINS TITLE

Vancouver Man Takes B.C. Trapshooting Championship; D. McGary Is Second

Vancouver, July 5.—Shooting in the same brilliant form which characterized his work on the opening day, C. W. McLean, Vancouver, won the British Columbia trap shooting championship when he broke 195 out of 200 of the clay birds in the two-day shoot conducted by the Vancouver Gun Club, which was concluded yesterday. Doug McGary, of Victoria, gave a splendid exhibition of shooting yesterday and took second place with 193 out of 200. McLean also took the all-around championship for the tourney. The handicap championship of 100 targets went to D. McGary. The pro singles was won by W. Wood, Vancouver, while Herbert Hoy captured the miss-and-out yesterday.

AUTHORS MEET IN VANCOUVER

Calgary, July 5.—Headed by their president, Charles G. D. Roberts, eminent Canadian writer, notable Canadian men and women of letters from the Atlantic to the Pacific gathered this morning in Knox Church here for the opening session of the annual convention of the national branch of the Canadian Authors' Association, with delegates representing eleven of the thirteen branches, giving close attention to the two important reports of the morning, those of Dr. E. A. Hardy, Toronto, secretary, and John M. Wilson, Toronto, treasurer.

WOMAN BADLY HURT BY AUTO

South Vancouver, July 5.—Knocked down by an automobile as she was about to board a street car at Kingsway and Perry Street this morning, Mrs. Lily Sorrell, twenty-five, Thirtieth East, received serious injuries which necessitated her removal to a hospital. Mrs. Florence S. Crease of Essendale, driver of the auto, was arrested by South Vancouver police and charged with driving to the common danger. Bail was fixed at $100 cash, and Mrs. Crease was liberated to appear before the magistrate on Thursday. Mrs. Sorrell is reported to have sustained a fracture of the skull and other injuries. Her condition is said to be critical.

Clean Government League Is Formed

Vancouver, July 5.—Primarily to enforce "clean government" in Vancouver, the Christian Vigilance League was formed at a meeting of church laymen in the First United Church here last evening. It is expected a definite policy will be formulated at a meeting to be held on July 10 when officers will be elected. An effort will be made to obtain a delegate from each church, according to E. G. Appleby, one of the organizers.

Held Strawberry Social—The C.O. L.T. girls of Knox Presbyterian Church held a most enjoyable strawberry social under the convener'ship of Mrs. H. Davies last Tuesday, as a result of which a substantial sum will be turned over to the church managers. An attractive programme included vocal duets by the Misses Havens and Irwin Davies; songs by Miss Young, a pupil of Mrs. Mary McCoy Jameson; songs and recitations by little Irma Falk, two choruses by the C.O.L.T. girls; piano solos by Mrs. Jeffrey, and community singing led by Mr. Farrington. After delicious refreshments had been served, the girls ended with enthusiasm into games and contests.

Alberta—Crops have never shown greater promise. Fifty per cent of wheat in shot-head and all growth rapid. Manitoba—Crops look well. Wheat just starting to head; stand-off rye varies greatly. NURSES DISCUSS PUBLIC HEALTH

Canadian Association at Winnipeg Gathering Elects Officers

Winnipeg, July 5.—The increasing importance of the place which the public health nurse occupies in every community in Canada, and the growing recognition of the value of her work was stressed in reports of provincial delegates at a meeting of the Canadian Nurses' Association at yesterday's session of the biennial meeting.

The reports showed that the public was taking an increasing interest in this important phase of the nurses' work. Various sectional meetings were held during the day, and at the educational section the problem of the public health nurse was dealt with. PAN-PACIFIC CONFERENCE OF WOMEN SOON

Miss Charlotte Whitton to Represent Canada at Honolulu in August

Miss Charlotte Whitton has been invited to represent Canada at the Pan-Pacific Women's Conference to be held in Honolulu from August 9 to August 19, with Miss Jane Addams as international chairman, and Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Honolulu chairman. The conference will cover discussion on vital matters relating to women and children, and the gathering of women from Pacific countries for the first time is a matter of more than common interest. The conference which came into being in 1924, was then termed "Motherhood and Child Welfare Conference." Later its scope was widened to include five divisions of health, education, women in industry and professions, and social service.

It is anticipated that over 500 persons will attend the forthcoming conference and many round table discussions are on the agenda. In the health and child welfare section the general subjects will be "Child Welfare," "Industrial Hygiene," and "School Health Supervision," and it is in this section that Miss Charlotte Whitton has been asked to represent Canada.

Papers on these subjects will be presented by outstanding authorities from the various universities and boards of health.

In the educational section, various school problems will be discussed. Mrs. Sumi Oe, founder of the home economics school in Japan, will tell of her work, and Dr. Louise Stanley, chief of the United States department of agriculture, will be among the speakers.

Miss Jane Addams will head the section on social service, and others taking part include: Mrs. T. E. Taylor, J.P. from New Zealand; Brigadier Sophia Harris, head of the Pacific Coast and Orient division of the Salvation Army; Miss Martha Randall, policewoman of Portland; Miss Taki Fujita from Japan, and Mrs. H. C. Mei, from China.

Mrs. Bertha Landes, former mayor of Seattle, has been invited to attend, and a paper on Juvenile Court work in Canada will be sent by Judge Helen Gregory MacGill of Vancouver.

Mrs. Alex Monteith reminded the gathering that fifty-two per cent of the women of the Province were women and urged them to use the power in their hands at the coming election. She questioned the attitude of Mrs. Mary E. McLeod, who is the subject of social legislation, declaring that she had changed herself against it in the earlier attempts to get such legislation through the House.

Mrs. Owen Campbell of Montreal, in urging the gathering to vote for the Conservative Party because it was the most honest and progressive, said she was proud to hear Mr. Pooley state that he had cast his vote in the Legislature in favor of votes for women. Brief speeches were also given by R. H. Pooley and H. D. Twigg.

Dances by little Miss Maureen Grute and Miss C. Brown, as well as by pretty Miss Mary E. McLeod, were enjoyed. During the afternoon tea was served.

Dean Quainton To Open Garden Fete Of Local Society

The annual garden party under the auspices of the Royal Society of St. George will be held this year at the residence of Alderman John Harvey, 714 Cook Street, on Wednesday next, July 11. The honorary president, Dean C. S. Quainton, will formally open the affair at 3 o'clock. The various stalls will consist of home-cooking, fancy goods, needlework, ice cream and candy, whilst a spinning wheel, brass dials and punch of jelly will be provided for the kiddies. Afternoon tea will be served during the afternoon.

One of the most interesting items will be the exhibition, dances to be given by the pupils of Miss Clough. Through the courtesy of Messrs. Davis & King, music will be provided by the new Columbia Truphone. In the evening there is to be a dance and card game, with refreshments served.

Local Gardens Amaze Editor Of "Mayfair"

The charm of Victoria's beautiful gardens have claimed another Eastern victim in the person of Mr. J. Herbert Hodgins, editor of Canadian Homes and Gardens Mayfair who, with Mrs. Hodgins, is a guest at the Empress Hotel.

Mr. Hodgins has been touring Canada with a view to securing material for publication in his magazine, and is enamored of the beauties of this city. On Sunday he and Mrs. Hodgins visited "Benvenuto," Tod Inlet, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Butchart, and they were as much impressed by the altruism of their hosts in throwing open their gardens to the public as by the gardens themselves, just now at the height of their summer beauty. They have also visited Hatley Park, Government House, whose panorama of sea and mountains delighted them, and a number of other well-known residences.

Plans Pupils in Recital.—The piano pupils of Mrs. E. T. Chue, A.Y.C.M., held their monthly recital at the studio, Harcourt House, 235 Government Street, realizing that nervousness or lack of self-confidence is a decided drawback to progress. It is Mrs. Chue's intention to have different pupils give short talks regarding that subject at each recital, hoping in this way to help to overcome that fault.

Last week Ruth Baxter gave a splendid talk on "Self Control," and Mr. Donald Marchant was given the subject "The Influence of the Mind Over the Body." The subject next month will be "Self-possession."

CLEVER CHINESE GIRL IS BURIED

Late Miss Ida Chue Was Destined For Mission Work; Born Here

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon over Miss Ida Chue, a Victoria-born Chinese girl, whose death at Clifton Springs, New Jersey, on June 22 brought to an untimely end her destined career as missionary among her own people in China.

Miss Chue was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sing Chue of 940 Queen's Avenue, her father being for twenty-eight years chief cook in the Canadian Pacific Coast Steamship Service. She was born in this city twenty-eight years ago and received her early education at the Girls' Central and Victoria High Schools. She then proceeded to Toronto to take up a course in kindergarten work, and after graduation returned to this city and for two years was kindergarten teacher in the Chinese Methodist Mission.

Two years ago Miss Chue went to Chicago to take post-graduate work in kindergarten and after completing her course went on to Clifton Springs, where she entered the school of nursing at the sanitarium and clinic, with a view to taking up mission work in Canada with the help of the sanitarium. But a sudden illness intervened and in spite of every effort on her behalf, she failed to rally and passed away on June 22. Among the many letters received by Mr. and Mrs. Chue expressing sympathy with them in their bereavement was one from the matron at Clifton Springs in which after voicing the sincere regret of the staff and nurses at Miss Chue's death, she wrote: "Your daughter was a very clever girl and we were looking for great things from her. She was a girl of fine character, an excellent scholar and her work was of a most unusual character."

Miss Ida Chue is survived by her parents, two brothers and two sisters here, and two brothers in Chicago. The funeral cortege left the Sandi Funeral Chapel and proceeded to the Chinese United Mission, where Rev. W. J. Sippell, D.D., conducted the impressive services, assisted by Rev. Lunt. The pallbearers were: Wong Hong, Jang Yick Jing, Lee Fat, Poo Hop, Wong, Eng Seung and Leong Lung. Many sympathizing friends attended the service, and among the floral tributes were beautiful wreaths from the Clifton Springs Sanitarium and from Chicago. Interment was made in Royal Oak Burial Park. Memorial services were also held at Clifton Springs and in Chicago.

YOUR BABY and MINE

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

ONE PRIME DIFFICULTY OF WEANING

Weaning the nine-month-old child who has never before had a bottle is usually accompanied by a struggle. Mother prepares the bottle, approaches baby, and says coaxingly: "Here's something nice for baby!" Apparently baby doesn't think so, for his red tongue pushes the nasty black nipple out of his mouth as fast as mother puts it in. He crawls to the far end of the bed and howls pitifully. Time and again the mother puts the bottle near his mouth, squirts out a few drops of milk to show him that it is perfectly all right, tastes good and all, but baby simply will have none of it. If mother is a stern disciplinarian she may decide to let baby starve for another three hours and then try again, but this is a dismal task, and the average mother can't stand the screaming and fussing, so she gives in and feeds the baby, leaving things exactly as they were in the beginning. Isn't it natural that in the child's mind the mother is so firmly correlated to the process of nursing that SHE would be a very poor person to offer him food in a new way? You see, we are not considering the baby who is so starved that he will accept anything, but the baby who is nourished and yet must be started on a new food. Any other person would not assume this same position in baby's mind. Auntie or Grandma or even Daddy or a nurse, or any stranger, if the mother were not present, could induce baby to accept a bottle and he wouldn't mind it at all. Only when he sees mother around will he demand to be nursed.

Keep this in mind. When offering baby a bottle for the first time let some one else do it. Prepare the bottle and then stay out of sight or go away for the few hours preceding the feeding period. When baby is hungry, mother absent, and the nice warm, good-tasting milk flows into his mouth, he will accept it eagerly.

Continue this for a few days until the bottle has become an old story to the baby; then it may be possible for mother to step in and see that he will still be willing to take it.

Slow weaning is always preferable as it does not upset the baby. That means one bottle this week, two bottles next week, three the week following, etc. Mother just has to stay close by for the four weeks it takes to wean a baby completely, but she may stay away during the actual giving of the first difficult bottle.

ST. AIDAN'S TO INSTAL PASTOR

Rev. S. T. Galbraith to Be Inducted at Mount Tolmie Church To-night

The pastorate of the St. Aidan's United Church, Mount Tolmie, will formally receive the Rev. S. T. Galbraith as its minister after the induction ceremony to be held at the church to-night. The Rev. W. A. Guy, chairman of the presbytery of Victoria, will preside over the ceremony, while Rev. Hugh Nixon will give the charge to the new minister. Following the induction an address will be given to the congregation by Rev. J. G. Bompas.

The new pastor's experience has been derived from service at Okanagan Landing and Prince George, where he served in churches after obtaining his B.A. at the University of British Columbia and his Bachelor of Divinity's degree at Westminster Hall. Mr. Galbraith followed his return from the war and graduated from Westminster Hall, the theological college in Vancouver, in 1922. Since that time he has spent some time training in Scotland, whither he went to take a course to which he gained admission by virtue of a scholarship he won while in Vancouver.

PRESENTATION
Rev. J. S. Paterson, who has been acting as interim moderator of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church since under appointment of the Presbytery, was presented by the congregation with a cheque in recognition and appreciation of his services and the spirit in which they have been given. The presentation was made by Col. Scroggie, representative elder of the session, who paid a warm tribute to Mr. Paterson and his work during the interim. He spoke, he said, both on behalf of the session and the congregation of St. Andrew's. Rev. Mr. Paterson, in responding, expressed his pleasure in the task and also voiced his appreciation of the tribute paid him by the session and congregation.

Pender Island

Pender Island, July 5—Closing exercises of a very brief character were held at Pender Island School. The pupils assembled as usual, and after the singing of "O Canada," the principal, Miss M. McIntyre, read the promotion lists and distributed reports, diplomas and prizes. Quite a number of parents and friends were on hand to witness this important occasion, at the close of which a hearty vote of thanks was extended to the two teachers for their splendid work during the term, and a sincere appeal for their return. Ice cream was very kindly provided for all by Mrs. Symes as a special treat in honor of her daughter, Kathleen's graduation. A splendid display of painting, drawing and map-drawing, the work of senior grade pupils, was highly commented upon. At ten o'clock the teachers, Miss McIntyre and Miss Graham, left, amid cheers and with arms full of flowers bestowed upon them by their devoted pupils, for Victoria, to spend their vacation.

This Modern Life!

Its Habits Produce Constipation, which "Fruit-a-lives" Corrects

MONTREAL, Que.—"After suffering many years from constipation, I was advised to try 'Fruit-a-lives.' All my ills are gone now," Mrs. H. Godlin.

Indoor work, soft, rich foods, lack of exercise impair our bodily functions. The most common evidence is constipation. Normal intestinal activity, denied to most of us by our way of living, is restored and maintained by "Fruit-a-lives," made of the juices of fresh, ripe fruits, blended with health-building tonics.

Home Demonstration

— no Obligation —

You need not buy a new Orthophonic Victrola in order to hear it at home. Try it first—then purchase if you like it.

After all—the purchase of a new Orthophonic Victrola is a step requiring a little serious thought in various ways. You want to know (not to imagine), how it will appear in your home. You want to hear it in its permanent location. You will probably wish to try it in various locations in your home.

Why not? It costs you nothing to do all this,—to have a wonderful evening of your favorite music.

Home demonstration is part of the service rendered by His Master's Voice dealers. Any responsible person in the community may arrange for such a demonstration.

There is no music so beautifully identical with the original performance as Orthophonic Victrola music. This is possible only through the recently developed, Victor controlled, principle of "Matched Impedance" or "Smooth Flow of Sound". Also,—there is no group of artists so varied or so famous as the group that sings for Victor V. E. Orthophonic records.

Models of the New Orthophonic Victrola are beautifully executed in fine woods, smartly designed, from $1400 to as low as $115. Obtainable at all His Master's Voice dealers on convenient payments.

Remember, a home demonstration with no obligation, is yours for the asking.

HIS MASTER'S VOICE

Perfectly jelled—

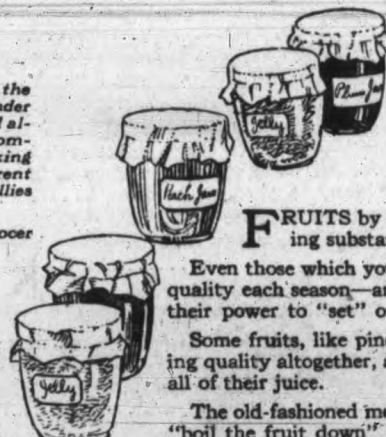

with the true color and flavor of the fresh fruit

—the Certo way

50% more glasses of jam or jelly because you have not boiled the juice away.

Certo is now packed with the recipe booklet directly under the label, so that you will always be sure of having complete instructions for making nearly one hundred different kinds of delicious jams, jellies and marmalades.

Order Certo from your grocer today.

FRUITS by nature vary in the amount of jellying substance which they contain.

Even those which you depend on most, differ in jellying quality each season,—and within the same season they lose their power to "set" or "jell" as they become fully ripe.

Some fruits, like pineapple and peaches, lack this jellying quality altogether, and few fruits have enough to jellyify all of their juice.

The old-fashioned method of jam or jelly making was to "boil the fruit down" until its jellying substance became sufficiently concentrated to jell the remaining juice. Naturally, this long cooking not only resulted in loss of fresh fruit flavor and color, but wasted about fifty per cent of the precious fruit juice.

Certo has changed all this

For Certo, taken from fruits in which it is abundant, is the natural jellying substance, concentrated, highly refined and bottled for your convenient use.

With Certo you can at once give your fruit exactly the right amount of natural jellying quality, so that it jells perfectly with only one or two minutes' boiling! You can use any variety of fruit you like, fully ripe, when its flavor is most luscious. You need never again have a failure.

And your jams and jellies will look better and taste better than ever before, because the short cooking made possible by this simple, easy Certo method saves the natural color of the fresh fruit and its natural fresh flavor.

LABOR LEADERS CALLED TO MEET

Ottawa, July 5.—The Trades and Labor Congress of Canada will hold its forty-fourth annual convention in Toronto, starting on September 10. The convention call, issued yesterday, cites the following as among the chief questions which will be submitted to the executive council to the convention:

Adoption by all the provinces of the Old Age Pensions Act; improvement in workmen's compensation laws; re-enactment of the Technical Education Act of 1919; amendments to the Immigration Act; eight-hour day; curtailment of veto power of the Senate; amendments to the British North America Act; unemployment and unemployment insurance; national fuel policy; Militia Act amendments; labor representation on the Tariff Board and elimination of the sales tax.

NEW MINISTER OF ST. ANDREW'S

Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, B.A.,
Inducted Last Night

The Rev. H. P. S. Luttrell, B.A., was formally inducted into the pastorate of the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in an impressive ceremony held at the church last night. The new minister, who was appointed to the post left vacant by the death of Rev. Dr. W. L. Clay, is a graduate of the Presbyterian College, Montreal, and was ordained in 1906. Since then he held the position of minister in the Presbytery of Ottawa at Zion Church, Hull, P.Q., and has had missionary service in China from 1909 to 1926.

Rev. S. Lundie, of Sooke, moderator of the Presbytery, presided over the induction of the new pastor and delivered his charge to Rev. Mr. Luttrell, calling upon him to make the necessary vows for the ceremony. He further complimented the minister and spoke very highly of the work of the late Rev. Dr. Clay.

The inspiration of faith was the theme of the sermon which the Rev. T. H. Davies, M.A., of Knox Presbyterian Church, preached to the congregation following the induction ceremony. He said that although the victory of Christianity was not complete, yet the people still had the inspiration of the living Christ before them and through the force of the irresistible invincible Christ the final battle would be won.

After the sermon, Rev. J. S. Patterson addressed the congregation, using the parable of the sower who went forth to sow as an illustration of the task before the new pastor. He was satisfied that the cathedral church of Presbyterianism on Vancouver Island was about to open another successful era under the new pastor, whom he likened to a capable sower scattering good seed on the fertile soil of a good congregation. The remainder of the induction service consisted of the invocation and prayers, delivered by Rev. T. H. Davies; a Scripture reading from Hebrews II; the hymns "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," "Blest Be the Tie That Binds" and "Rise, O Men of God"; and the anthem by the choir, "How Lovely Are the Messengers." Mr. Jesse Longfield presided at the organ.

Following the formal service, an informal social gathering was held in the schoolroom, at which Rev. Mr. Luttrell had an opportunity of meeting personally many of his congregation.

WARNS VOTERS ABOUT P.G.E.

Should Not Be Fooled Again,
Says Pooley, Recalling
Railway History

Colwood, July 5.—"How much longer is the electorate to be fooled by the P.G.E.?" asked R. H. Pooley, Conservative House leader in the Legislature, speaking at Colwood Hall last night.

He declared the Government had been making announcements about the solution of the railway problem for years, but without any results whatever.

He accused the Government of bungling when it took over the P.G.E. from the firm of Foley, Welch and Stewart, with which the former Conservative Government had made an iron-clad agreement.

Mr. Pooley attacked the statements of Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, Liberal candidate in Esquimalt, about provincial half-holiday legislation. While Mrs. Smith was taking credit for this legislation, he said, actually she had not been in the House when it was passed in 1916, and was not even a voter then, woman's suffrage not having been introduced at the time, he asserted.

SEEK JUSTICE ONLY

Capt. H. S. Thain referred to the claims of the Government that it could negotiate with the Federal Government on railway and similar questions more advantageously than a Liberal administration.

"All that the people of B.C. are asking of the Dominion is justice," he said, urging the election of Hon. S. F. Tolmie as Premier to plead the cause of the Province at Ottawa.

SAANICH CONSERVATIVES

At the same time Saanich Conservatives were holding a meeting in Oped Avenue Hall in the interests of Dr. Tolmie.

"There are four issues in this campaign," said R. A. Wootton, in addressing this meeting. "First, whether or not the people want a Government controlled by an irresponsible and sectional minority; second, has the fiscal policy of the present Government been brought about by political expediency; third, whether corruption and debauchery of the provincial treasury is to be condemned or condoned; and fourth, whether or not the people of the Province want to be usurped by political machinery."

C. H. Dickie, M.P. for Nanaimo, discussed Federal questions, devoting himself to the Canadian tariff, which he said should be raised to protect Canadian industry.

Capt. Thain also spoke at the Saanich meeting, attacking the Government's handling of Royal Commission investigations and declaring that the only way to get justice in the Government's courts was to engage a Liberal lawyer.

Sooke

Sooke, July 5.—The monthly meeting of the Sooke Branch Canadian Legion B.E.S.L. took place on Wednesday at their headquarters.

Mrs. P. Hewer and Mrs. Dudley Gilmore have returned from Victoria.

Mrs. Phillip Snape and family have come to spend the Summer holidays at their home here.

Mrs. Henry Fisher and family are at home for the holidays.

Ronald Kitching is at home for the holidays.

Captain Troys of Sassenos, has taken his boat Seamark II, up to Barkley Sound for the fishing season.

Mr. G. Horwood has sold his property on the waterfront to Mr. Scott of Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Knott of Victoria spent the week-end at the Whiffen Spit Auto Camp.

Mrs. W. Eastwood with her son and daughter is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. George McInosh.

The Sooke school held its annual picnic on the river flats. There was a large attendance of the relatives and friends belonging to the children. It proved very enjoyable affair, some of the races causing great fun. The following were winners in the races:

CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES AT VICTORIA WEST

Fewer and Smaller Taxes
Promised Voters

Should the Conservative Party be placed in office Dr. Tolmie would cut the income tax in half and abolish entirely the collection of succession duty now levied on large estates, Conservative candidates stated at a meeting in Stanley Hall, Victoria West, last night. A. R. Colby presided.

Joshua Hinchliffe protested that he should not be charged with lack of humor or with being out of touch with the younger generation. He declared that Dr. Maclean had administered to the people of British Columbia sugar-coated pills, the sugar of tax reduction being a covering for doses of more taxes.

He blamed the Government for devastation created by logging operations, declaring the resources of the Province were being exploited instead of developed. Mr. Hinchliffe declared the Province to be suffering from a fever of borrowing, and many taxes could and should be eliminated. The return of a Conservative Government would be a step towards this end, he claimed.

James H. Beatty, speaking of the Provincial debt, said it was confusing to understand the splitting up of the debt into different classes. The debt is the debt, and has to be paid. The money is owing. It is said the net debt is $46,000,000. Last September the Government wanted money, and like a private borrower, they had to give a statement of affairs, and then they showed the gross debt as $102,000,000, less $16,000,000 alleged to be in the sinking fund.

Mr. Beatty said that when the Conservative Government went out, the country was simply secured to the P.G.E. But in 1918 the Liberal Government desired to own a railway and they took over the road, gave the contractors their plant, paid them handsomely, and released them from all obligations.

He considered that the efforts of the Government to sell the P.G.E.—if returned to power—by value and intelligence of the people. Mr. Beatty had every confidence in his associate candidates and particularly in the ability of Dr. Tolmie to feel convinced that the P.G.E. puzzle would be solved to the satisfaction of the people by Dr. Tolmie's Government. It would not be allowed to eat its head off.

DENIES CREDIT FOR PROSPERITY

H. Despard Twigg said the prosperity propaganda was made for the purpose of making it appear to be attributable to the Liberal Government. What prosperity exists is due to general conditions—a bumper crop on the Prairies for three years past, general growth of the country and especially the opening of the Panama Canal, as well as the new demand coming from China and Japan.

As to the reduction of the freight rates which cost so much of our money to secure, did the people get a loaf of bread or a single commodity one cent cheaper? That reduction was absorbed, every cent, by the Dominion Government-run harbor board at Vancouver.

NOTHING GOOD

There could not be pointed out any item of policy which would show a lasting effect in mining, timber, fishing, or agriculture.

Also there had been an entire failure to build up the tourist business. Switzerland got rich on its tourist traffic through its scenery. British Columbia's scenery is incomparable, but no effort had been made to conserve its magnificent parks, its scenery and its game.

Reginald Hayward denounced construction of the West Coast as a bait held out to purchase Victoria, but Dr. Tolmie will build that road, if he is elected with the government of the Province.

He protested that the spendthrift conduct of the Government had evoked "earnings from a Liberal leader in the Prairies who had held out British Columbia as a horrible example of "spendthrift zeal." The Conservatives claimed the right to criticize, not to abuse, and it was right to point out the faults, if not worse, of the Government. In road contracts the Government's policy was one of looking after its friends, not the lowest tenders. Mr. Hayward stated that contract after contract was given to friends at higher prices and even those prices exceeded when the work was completed. He asked whether anything took place between the Government and these contracting friends.

Patronage was rampant, despite the virtuous cry of abolition of patronage on which the Liberals came into power. Persons must approach the Government through the Liberal Association. Mr. Hayward intimated knowledge of an instance of this in an attempt by a local printer applying for a share of the printing of the voters' list.

LIFE SAVERS

You've overloaded that tire— There's the trouble

UNDER-INFLATION plays havoc with tire mileage; overloading is just one degree worse.

Every size of tire is built to carry a certain load at a certain pressure. If overloaded or under-inflated its side-walls break down and its mileage is cut far below what was built into it.

For the sake of economy weigh your trucks when loaded, weigh the rear end separately, and have a tire expert specify the correct size of tire for that load.

Then keep your load within the rating of the tire and be careful that loads which project over the rear wheels do not place too much weight on the rear tires.

A weekly trip to a tire service station for a thorough tire inspection will pay good dividends in reduced tire costs.

"Usconite" the most important development in years in heavy service pneumatic tire construction

For years tire engineers have tried to find a way to offset the effects of heat accumulation in pneumatic truck tires.

Now the Dominion Rubber Company have developed a rubber compound — "Usconite" — which minimizes this destructive element.

It maintains its tenacious characteristics under high temperatures. It has a strong affinity for cotton, making the plies hold firmly together. Yet, it permits great freedom of movement in the carcass. Only Dominion use "Usconite".

Note the ribbed wall construction which protects the side walls against wear and side-scuffing from curb or deep rut. "Usconite" offsets the effects of heat accumulation. Read about it in the paragraph at the left.

DEMOCRACY IS SUBJECT OF ROTARY TALK

Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald Points to Some of Its Perils.

Recommending the enlightenment of the higher educational facilities of democracy in provision of special training for public office, Mr. Justice M. A. Macdonald this afternoon addressed the Rotary Club luncheon at the Empress Hotel, speaking on the perils of democracy.

Democratic forms of government were the best yet devised by man, but possessed certain weaknesses which only exposure could eradicate. Democracy pre-supposed a loyal, moral and intelligent people, but to many students the system had been a deep and bitter disappointment, the speaker said.

GREEKS LAW PERILS

Democracy to-day did not mean the equal sharing of the government of the country, as was the condition when the ancient Greeks evolved the system. The term democracy was now understood to mean the equal sharing in the selection of administrators. With a review of the history of democracy, Mr. Justice Macdonald showed that the perils inherent were recognized 2500 years ago, the Greeks meeting the necessity by popular election of dictators or lawgivers, while the Roman solution was creation of the Senate, ripe with the wisdom of years.

History showed that the people were fickle, too ready to listen to demagogues. Man was an emotional animal, occasionally rational, and appealing to those emotions had become a fine art, the speaker said.

Terror of invasion, with seizure of women and slavery of men, had been the vital driving force which compelled the ancients to take stern measures to prevent the ravages of demons. To-day the people forgot those horrors, and mediocrity was often crowned amid the plaudits of the crowd. Democracy should aim to harness for the public good its brain power.

The speaker reviewed the fall of the Greek and Roman democracies and their replacement by aristocratic governments headed by kings and courtiers, brave in war but idle in peace, reveling in gorgeous courts. He recalled that nearly every revolution had been brought about by poor hungry people and surveyed briefly the French Revolution, the importance of which rested in the excesses committed and the checks which have ever since been submitted to by democratic governments.

POWER OF LEADERS

The speaker called attention to the action of the Fathers of Confederation in Canada in creating the Senate, as a body apart from considering popular clamor fostered by demagogues, pointing out that a whole people will run their heads against a stone wall of economic fact at the bidding of some popular leader. He recalled that some years ago 1,000,000 men went on strike against the nation at the call of a medicine leader who overbore the advice of his more cautious associates.

Men competent for their own work were often inferior or incompetent for public duties, a fact established by the dear price paid for municipal maladministration. Communities have been bankrupted, men and women driven from their homes by heavy taxation, as the fruits of a regrettable democracy in municipal affairs.

Pointing out that nations take centuries to fall, the speaker showed that in all instances bad government had preceded collapse. The party system of government had no place in the democracy of the Ancients, and was like a poisonous vine clinging to a fruitful tree. Close scrutiny and careful pruning were needed to prevent the vine of partyism from killing the tree.

PUBLIC AFFAIRS COURSES

Asserting that business and science progress continuously, while government follows the methods of a century ago, Mr. Justice Macdonald closed with three suggestions that the universities establish courses in public affairs. Such a policy would, in a few years, turn out a large supply of material from which the people would be able to select their administrators.

Rounds of applause greeted the conclusion of the address, and the thanks of the Rotarians were presented by Herbert Anscomb, president.

CANADIAN CARPET MANUFACTURERS INVADE UNITED STATES MARKET

With the announcement that the Barrymore Seamless Wilton Co., of Philadelphia, is entering the Toronto Carpet Co., has joined with three of the largest manufacturers of floor coverings in the United States to market their products in Canada.

The Barrymore Co., pioneers in the weaving of seamless Wilton carpets, was incorporated in Pennsylvania in 1921. Since that time two plants, one in Philadelphia and another in Holmestown, employing over 600 hands, have been opened.

Until the present this company has distributed its products through its own selling organization, with offices in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles. It was recently approached by W. and J. Sloane & Co. of New York, who wished to obtain the sole selling rights of Barrymore products in conjunction with the goods of the Alexander Smith Co., manufacturers of Axminster carpets, the output of the C. H. Masland Co., manufacturers of tapestry, rugs and carpets, and the output of W. and J. Sloane & Co., makers of linoleum and felt base.

Negotiations were completed for the Sloane Co. to take over the merchandising of the entire Barrymore output from November 1, 1928. None of the companies in the deal have changed hands in any way. They are all independent, but will work together.

The output of the Canadian company will still be marketed through offices in Montreal, Toronto and Vancouver.

It was not until the seamless Wilton carpet looms were perfected at the Toronto Carpet Co. plant that the American branch of the firm was started. The looms, originally brought from Germany after the war, were improved by men in Toronto, with the result that a machine was evolved capable of producing a product which filled a long-felt need.

The Toronto Carpet Co. was founded by F. B. Hayes, who is still president of the company, in 1891. The story of its development during the founders' lifetime, is one of the romances of big business.

HIS BUSINESS GROWS

The creation of a balance reservoir by Saanich Municipality, to keep up the pressure in Saanich mains by the storage of additional water from city mains overnight for distribution throughout the day will be recommended by F. M. Preston, city engineer, in a report to be laid before the City Council shortly, it is understood.

Adequate storage facilities will be needed by the wholesale consumers of the city in the near future, if they are to avail themselves of the higher pressures available at night, Mr. Preston will advise the council, it is believed. This is taken to imply that both Oak Bay and Saanich will have to face the problem of the construction of independent water supply systems.

The time for the installation of some such additional storage in Saanich is ripe, according to some members of the city water committee, who it is thought, will ask the council to so advise the Saanich municipal body.

The cost of the installation of a balance reservoir would run into a considerable expenditure of money, but the situation will have to be faced if satisfactory results are expected by Saanich in its distribution, it is stated.

A report on the pressures available in the city water supply system to outside points will be presented by Mr. Preston to the City Council at its next meeting. "It is from an analysis of the pressure tables that the recommendation as to reservoirs now springs, it is understood."

CITY SOLICITOR NEEDS HELPER

Recommendation to Council That Assistant Be Appointed

The appointment of an assistant city solicitor for the legal department of the city, under H. S. Pringle is recommended to the City Council in a joint report of the legislative and civic services committees, to be presented at the next regular meeting of the council.

City Solicitor H. S. Pringle has carried the burden of the ordinary legal work of the city in addition to the added volume of duties devolving on him through the industrial development plans of the corporation single handed since the commencement of the programme three years ago, it is stated.

In addition to this, there is no one connected with the legal department of the city who could step in for Mr. Pringle's shoes in the event of a break-down in health, or his temporary absence from the city for any other cause.

The volume of work handled by the department has grown tremendously as the city has expanded, and extraordinary calls on Mr. Pringle's time have become so numerous that he has been working overtime almost daily to keep up in addition to the regular city business handled through his office.

Mr. Pringle laid these facts before the council recently, in a request for assistance of an assistant city solicitor, and the recommendation will now go forward to the council from the joint committees reporting on the request.

R. M. Brophy Tells of Improved Radios Now Being Produced

Three fine new types of radios will be put on the 1928 and 1929 markets by the Canadian Marconi Company, said R. M. Brophy, sales manager of the company, when discussing the new styles now being produced.

All these machines have such an excellent tone that their reproduction of the human voice and the instrumental selections give almost the same rendition of the music as that which is heard by the people listening to it at first hand, said Mr. Brophy. "Presence" is the name given by Mr. Brophy to this super-fine quality, which actually brings the original sound without any distortion into the room of the listener.

Winnipeg, July 5.—Wheat opened 1/2 to 3/4 higher this morning. A good class of buying going on by board houses, but this demand was quickly satisfied and early gains were lost, the market holding firm for some considerable time, but gradually weakened under a very poor demand. There was a report that Russia had purchased 1,119,000 bushels of Manitoba, but this could not be confirmed.

There was not much change in the cash market, there still being a good demand for No. 2 northern and the low grades from shippers, and spreads on those grades were firm. Lack of offerings held volume within small limits. There has been a good demand all season for the low grades, the foreigner preferring them to No. 2 northern, and the result is that supplies are nearly exhausted, while stocks of No. 2 northern are very heavy, or fully 50,000,000 bushels.

Weather over winter wheat harvest is now more favorable with harvesting operations becoming more general, resulting in hedging pressure becoming heavier. The weather forecasts are also favorable, further showers, being received in Western Canada, and general conditions are considered very favorable.

However, we are now entering the period of crop scarce area, and while no sign of rust has yet been reported, there is considerable apprehension that this may develop with warm temperatures following the heavy precipitation of the past month. The Canadian Government issued a report late Wednesday afternoon which gave conditions in Western Canada as extremely favorable. The estimate of acreage will come on July 10. Winnipeg futures closed 1/2 to 1 1/4 lower.

HAWKS

It is difficult to define a Hawk. Apparently a Hawk is a day bird of prey which is neither an eagle, a vulture, a falcon, a buzzard, a harrier nor a kite. The most common European species is the Sparrow Hawk. These birds have the very carriage and countenance of battle. Here a Sparrow Hawk is raiding a flock of chaffinches.

Here is the American Goshawk or Goose Hawk. The European species is trained to kill wild geese.

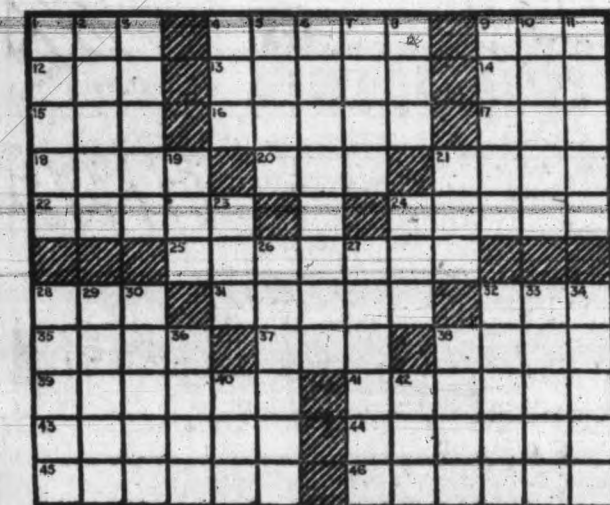

South American hawks, called Caracaras, are flesh-eaters. They run as well as they fly. Here is a Brazilian Caracara.

Flocking in numbers like wolves in a pack, Caracaras hunt in company, and, in the manner of the jackal following the lion, the Caracaras keep pace with human hunters to eat the offal and the carrion which they may furnish. One species, Audubon's Caracara, ranges into the southern parts of the United States.

To-morrow's Horoscope

FRIDAY, JULY 6, 1928

Astrologers read this as a fairly favorable day in planetary government, although adverse aspects are strong.

Newspapers and periodicals should benefit from this positioning of the stars which foreshadows startling events of world interest.

Last month's partial eclipse of the sun is believed to presage for Russia troubles that involve the British as well as China and Japan.

This is a day more favorable to routine activities than to the planning of future projects.

It is a fortunate day for signing leases or contracts and should be lucky for new business ventures.

Persons whose birthdate it is should beware of intrigue in the coming year which should be fairly prosperous.

ONTARIO INDIANS REJECT NEW PLAN

Brantford, Ont., July 5.—That the independence movement among the Six Nations Indians of Ontario was not unanimous was emphasized here to-day when William D. Powless, secretary of the Six Nations Council, the only duly elected and official organization on the reserve, issued a statement for publication. In the statement he challenged the stories given to the press by the malcontents that they had a following of 4,000.

The Six Nations Council, which is the only governing body on the reserve recognized by the Government of Canada, is not a party to and has no knowledge of the demand for independence, neither has it any connection with the English lawyer styling himself by the absurd title of "Minister of Justice."

"The whole movement is just another of similar character, which has for its sole object the extortion of money from our more credulous people."

The Six Nations reserve is near Brantford.

H. W. CREELMAN HEAD OF SCHOOL

Esquimaux School Board Appoints New Principal For Lampson Street

Dispute Over Board Chairmanship Raised By Trustee

H. W. Creelman was appointed principal of the Lampson Street School to fill the vacancy created by R. L. Campbell's resignation at a meeting of the Esquimaux School Board held at the Lampson Street School last night.

The successful candidate was selected from a list of twelve applications from teachers of this Province and Alberta.

The trustees were of the opinion that Mr. Creelman was most fitted for this appointment in view of the fact that he had shown fine qualifications for the new position during his vice-principalship of the North Ward School.

Preceding the transaction of the board's business, Mrs. King questioned the advisability of permitting the press to be present at the meeting. The objection was overcome by A. Lockley, chairman, who said that during his terms in public offices on the council and on the school board he had never found the press biased or unfair in any matter which it treated.

CHAIRMANSHIP DISPUTE

Previous to the meeting Mrs. King said that without any personal motives in view, she thought that Mr. Lockley should vacate the chair until the matter concerning his eligibility to that office should be settled and when her suggestion was not complied with she stated that she wished to be recorded as having sat at the meeting under protest.

Following the appointment of the new principal, the board considered the tenders it had received for the repair work on the furnaces and decided to give the contract for these repairs to the Pacific Sheet Metal Company. The company guaranteed to fix the heating plant for the sum of $1,350.

DOMINION DAY IS CELEBRATED

Loggers Muster in Strength For Big Competitions

Courtenay, July 5.—Hundred dollar prizes for the loggers' sports brought Comox district out en masse for the Dominion Day celebration at Courtenay. The programme was under the direction of the Native Sons. Prizes offered for "bucking" and "eye-splicing" brought the loggers out in full force. A special excursion was run from Powell River, the Charmer bringing over about 300 holiday makers.

The celebration commenced with a parade, followed by the crowning of the queen, little Miss Bessie Knight of Comox. The ceremony was performed by Gladys Bowen and the made-up honorees were Miss Vera Norden and Miss Kathleen Ellis. Seymour Abrams of Union Bay addressed the children on the significance of Dominion Day.
